ORDER: (per The Hon'ble Sri Justice Ramesh Ranganathan)

Heard both sides and, at their request, the writ petition itself is taken up for disposal at the stage of admission.

The only grievance of Sri T.Suryakaran Reddy, learned counsel for the petitioner, is that while the Tribunal had directed maintenance of status-quo for a period of two weeks, and had directed the respondents to consider the representation to be submitted by the petitioner to permit him to continue to hold full additional charge, no time limit was prescribed for the respondents to pass orders on the representation. Learned counsel would submit that the petitioner would submit a representation by 10th January, 2007. Learned Government Pleader would submit that the Government would dispose of the representation within two weeks from the date of receipt of the representation.

Recording both these submissions, we consider it appropriate to direct that the order of the status-quo passed by the Tribunal be extended till the end of January, 2007.

The Writ Petition is disposed of accordingly. However, in the circumstances, without costs.
